WHAT WE LEARNED

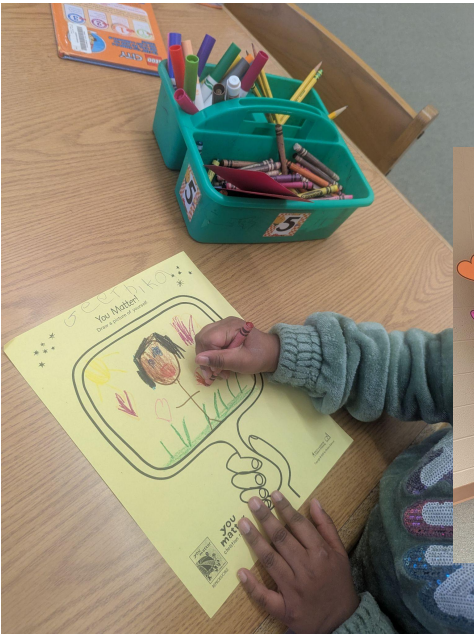

February always seems to fly by. This month, Kindergarten studied author/illustrator Christian Robinson's work. First grade reviewed fiction vs. nonfiction and celebrated Valentine's Day with a book about love. Second graders completed our Mock Caldecott unit and got to vote on the book they think should win the award. In third grade, we read and discussed some picture book biographies. Fourth graders worked hard learning how to create bibliographies for their research projects. In most grade levels, our visiting author for this year was announced!

Welcome to the dog park! It's a playground for dogs in the big city. Here, four sixth graders (and their dogs!) overlap on one hilarious and important June weekend. Ezra needs to find his lost dog. Cup-Cup needs a friend. (She also needs to learn to walk on a leash.) Mei-Alice wonders if anyone will ever understand her. Panda wonders what will happen if she breaks the rules. Kaleb is covering up a terrible mistake. Grover and Lottie are making lots of terrible mistakes. (Some of them are disgusting.) And Jilly needs to make a new life in a new place.

On this almost-summer weekend, a series of surprises, mishaps, and misunderstandings will end up changing all of their lives.

Life is good when you're a dog and you have humans all to yourself. But what about when a new baby enters the picture . . . along with a couple of cats intent on taking over the world?

Full of mini adventures, pop culture spoofs, sharp jokes, adorable illustrations, and a sneaky dose of heart, Jurassic Bark and Frankenstein's Hound are the perfect introduction to these characters and their world. Just right for the pet-obsessed among us no matter the age, while simultaneously appealing to the kids who love to giggle at Big Nate, Dog Man, Garfield, and Snoopy.

NEW BOOKS ADDED THIS MONTH

In this humorous epic adventure, a boy is, on the one hand, having a very ordinary day. He does his math homework, his chores, and takes a nap...all while a surprising adventure unfolds around him involving pirates, dragons, and other unexpected perils.

With clever interplay between text and art and an expansive, imaginative arc, this modern classic is a landmark fantasy picture book perfect for fans of Hugo Cabret and After the Fall.

Moose really wants to join two birds at the top of a tree. But how does a moose climb up a tree, and what will he do when he gets to the top? Find out in this delightfully silly story about a moose on a mission...and the birds that are in for a pleasant, moonlit surprise!

Squire and Sir Kelton have promised to get Cade to the school of wizardry. Strangely though, the path they've taken has brought them into a bewildering, misty forest, rife with fearsome gnolls and a boisterous rival knight. To get out, Squire tries every trick in the book, but books don't hold all the answers. Can he muster up his confidence, remember his duties, and find a way to escape the forest?

With characters that are relatable and dynamic, Squire & Knight is an instant classic that will enthrall readers.
